

Crew Resource Management and Near Miss Reporting for Technical Rescue

About the Presenter

Jeremy Metz is a Captain/Paramedic for West Metro Fire Rescue in Lakewood (CO). Jeremy has been active in the Fire Service for 17 years with experience as a Firefighter in the United States Air Force, a Firefighter in the mountain community of Winter Park (CO) and as a career firefighter in Englewood (CO) and Lakewood (CO). He is assigned to the Technical Rescue Station and is the department's Technical Rescue Team Manager. Jeremy is an active member of the State of Colorado's committee for Urban Search and Rescue (ESF-9) and the Colorado Metro Certification Board's committee on Technical Rescuer certification. He holds a Bachelor's degree from Colorado State University in Fire and Emergency Service Administration. Jeremy is a lead rope rescue instructor for Red Rocks Community College and coordinates and is a lead instructor for regional technical rescue courses.