

Bio – Nat Bowditch

Nat Bowditch has been a member of the Santa Clara County (California) Sheriff's Search & Rescue Team since 2004. Nat has participated in almost 100 searches, including mutual aid Search & Rescue operations in the Sierra Nevada mountains. In 2015, Nat found a hunter who had been lost for two days at 2500 meters elevation. Nat holds degrees from Cornell University, Stanford University and the University of Chicago.